

This is part of a game. Please place everything back the way you found it. Thank you!

Questions? Please contact:

Geocaching is a real-world, outdoor treasure hunting game played all over the world by adventurers with GPS-enabled devices. Players try to locate hidden containers, called geocaches. They leave their name in the logbook and place everything back the way they found it.